

Indication Matrix

Total of clinical cases, indicated for delayed submerged single tooth implants:	100%
Profile of treating dentist or dental specialist:	Conservative	Moderate	Progressive
Subcategories of extraction cases and causes of tooth extractions:	Percentage estimated to be suited for any immediate implant treatment (screw-type or REPLICATE System):
Infection-free, horizontally fractured teeth (trauma)	10%	40%	75%
Infection-free, vertically fractured teeth (trauma)
Teeth damaged by carious destruction without pus-generating infection
Teeth that require root canal treatment that are not treatable, without pus-generating infection
Endodontic failure
Non-reversible loosening with pain or tenderness upon function
Local apical infection
Chronical peri-radicular infection
Cyst greater 8 mm	contraindicated
General sepsis of bone socket
Significant loss of hard and soft tissue			